Dear Praying Friends,

Since our last official prayer letter, we have posted an update regarding the earthquakes here in Italy that many of you have already seen (<http://tsboehm.com/2016/08/24/update-on-todays-earthquake/>). The earthquakes have offered us extra opportunities to speak with neighbors about the peace God offers. Please pray particularly for Alegra to accept peace with God through Jesus' blood.

Tom had the opportunity to visit a refugee camp this month and to share the gospel with Dante, who speaks English (most of the refugees speak languages we do not speak). He made a profession, and we pray that his life will show this to be a true conversion and not just empty words.

September 25, we plan to show another film. Please pray for the effectiveness of this effort.

Stephanie received some discouraging news regarding the tract she and some Italian ladies have translated into Italian. It will not be printed for an indefinite amount of time, and we do not have rights to use our Italian translation in the meantime. Please pray with us as we look for other simple aids to sharing the Gospel (for us and our people).

Ilario continues to search for work. He is looking near and far, and we would be delighted if God would grant him work nearby (so that he and his family can continue to be a key part of our church).

Italian schools started on Monday, giving us yet another reminder of the frustrating and humorous cultural differences we face daily (i.e., some teachers haven't been placed yet, schedules will not be set up for another 2 weeks). :) Even a newspaper headline spoke of the chaos at the schools.

We continue to happily plod along here and thank God for your interest and prayers.

For the Sake of His Name,

Tom, Stephanie, Daniela, Nino, & Angelo
