Dear Praying friends,

Thank you for praying for the distribution of literature and gifts in our area. Only one person rejected the Scripture calendar. We pray that God will use His Word in the hearts of the people as they read the tracts and calendars. We are thankful for the opportunity to spread the Gospel with kindness.

For Christmas we had a family from our church along with a man (from our church) whose wife was out of town in our home for lunch. We had an enjoyable time together and trust that it was encouragement for everyone.

On New Year's Eve we had our annual gathering as a church body. We started with a dinner together, followed by a devotional and prayer time by Ilario. We finished the night with games and, due to a temporary ordinance by the city, returned the following evening for fireworks. Three unsaved friends even stopped in for a few minutes to say Happy New Year.

Tom and Ilario built and installed a beautiful cross in our church's meeting place. Ilario did the designing and painting, Tom rigged the lighting, and together they put in hours assembling and mounting it. It is exciting to have this beautiful reminder of God's free gift.

Giulia brought along a friend to one service (who has said she wants to come back) and mentioned that she has another who is interested in visiting. A couple of friends of Tom's have also shown an interest in coming to visit. Pray that God would save people in our city.

Our annual meeting went without a hitch. Thank you for praying. It was encouraging to see the unity of the people as we reviewed finances and events from the previous year and planned for the year to come. Please pray as we make decisions on how to best use the resources that God has provided for our assembly.

Thank you for your prayers!

For the Sake of His Name,

Tom, Stephanie, Daniela, Nino, Angelo, & Gabriella
