

THE BOEHMS IN ITALY

October 15, 2022

Dear Praying Friends,

Thank you for your prayers for my dad. Praise God that his cancer scan came back clear. There are lingering health complications that still need to be addressed, but we are thankful for God's grace and that the scan showed no cancer.

Thank you for your prayers for the work on our building. Nothing has begun.

We took a quick trip to Rome to catch up with some friends that we met on deputation in 2012. It was great to spend the day with and be encouraged by them.

Tom's mom and stepdad are visiting with us for 2 weeks. We had not seen them for over 3 years. The kids are having a great time showing them their favorite locations to play.

We have a get-together in Grosseto with other missionaries all around Italy (about 2.5 hours from us) October 31-November 1.

We're thankful that Ilario's work contract was renewed (it expired the end of September) through the end of January.

Please pray with us to have wisdom in planning Christmastime outreaches and events.

Elisabetta wanted to celebrate her birthday during the usual ladies' Bible study on Wednesday afternoon. I decided to shift from our usual study (2 Samuel) and talk about God's gift of life and especially of spiritual life, and I asked Elisabetta to share her salvation testimony. Two neighbors came in addition to several ladies from church, and we enjoyed the time together.

We continue to pray for the war in Ukraine.

We would also appreciate your continued prayers for our neighbors and friends.

Thank you for your prayers!
