Dear Praying Friends,

Our church has had a couple of visitors this month, but Giulia has still not returned to any of our church's gatherings. The driveway/parking area around the building our church rents has been re-surfaced (partially paved and partially covered in gravel), and there is no more mud to deal with. That is definitely an answer to prayer as we have had rain every day for the past week, and more is expected this week. Tom helped with the wiring projects the landlord wanted to be done before they paved.

Parent-teacher conferences went well for 2 of our three kids that are in public schools. Please pray for our kids to love God and put Him first. Nino's (5th grade) and Angelo's (4th grade) last day of school is Saturday, June 10. Gabriella goes to kindergarten through June 30. Daniela should be finishing her 7th grade American homeschool requirements Wednesday (May 17), but she will then be in high gear preparing for her written and oral exams over all the subjects in Italian (to satisfy the Italian government). We do not have exact dates yet, but we are told they will be mid-June (she will be tested for 3 days in a row). Please pray as we work toward the end-of-the-school-year requirements.

Another missionary church is hosting an orchestra from America at the end of the month. They will perform in several places, including our city square. We plan to distribute gospels of John and tracts to the attendees at this performance May 31st.

Lucio has been an encouragement in our ministry by serving faithfully in the sound booth. He will complete his mechanical engineering degree after two more exams and a 6-month internship in Florence (2 hours away). Please pray for God's guidance as he looks for housing and makes decisions about his future.

We continue to pray for boldness and opportunities in witness. Thank you for your prayers for our friends and neighbor's salvation, including: Alberto, Gina, Diego, Piero, Liliana, Mario, Monaldo, Simone, Tito, Piera, and Santino.

Thank you for your prayers and interest in our ministry.

Stephanie for Tom, Daniela, Nino, Angelo, & Gabriella
