Dear Praying Friends,

Tom is getting ready to start a series on Genesis this Sunday, and he printed flyers to invite people to it. He has put a lot of time into the preparations, and we are praying that people will come and that God's Word will be effective.

We have recently had a few more unbelievers visiting our Sunday services (we even added a few extra chairs to accommodate everyone more comfortably). This week, one of the unsaved men who has visited a few times brought his unsaved adult daughter for the first time. Pray that God will draw people to Himself.

As we shared while we were with many of you this summer, Tom is planning, Lord willing, to start a Bible Institute here and is aiming for the fall of 2025. In preparation for that, he has been working on translating some books into Italian to use for the classes. The abundance of resources in English and the scarcity of the same in Italian is amazing.

God provided an excellent guitar teacher for Nino. Would you pray with us for opportunities to reach out to him? Ilario has witnessed to him repeatedly in the past.

The work on our apartment building could possibly be drawing to a close. We've seen many deadlines come and go, but the scaffolding may be all taken down by the next time we write. Praise the Lord. It also seems like they will begin to repair the water damages inside our apartment before too much more time passes. Periodically we still get a chance to talk with or give a tract to the workers.

Tom has spent a lot of time with Simone, Abele, and Samuele recently. Please pray for their conversion. Please also pray for several ladies I have renewed contact with since we've been back: Manuela, Maria, Michela, Sonia, and Sandra.

Thank you for your prayers for us and the people in Italy!
