Dear Praying Friends,

Tom has done a number of construction projects this month. He installed the pellet stove in our church's meeting place to provide the extra heat we needed. He and a neighbor laid a cement pad in our apartment building's garages. He also repaired one of the street lights outside our apartment building. In addition, a few different neighbor ladies periodically knock on our door to ask Tom to help with various home projects.

We enjoyed time with guests from America this month, and Tom will attend 2 conferences in the next month—both in Florence. One is a conference on why people are leaving the evangelical church and going to the Roman Catholic Church (February 22). The other is on the need for Bible Institutes in Italy (March 11-14).

We have signed Daniela up with a high school (she is homeschooled but must take exams in all the subjects in the Italian public school at the end of each school year). Please pray that this high school will be understanding and easy to collaborate with. The middle school that we have been dealing with (and will still be dealing with for the boys) has been fairly difficult.

Many things in our lives continue as regularly scheduled: school, music lessons, and basketball for the kids, ladies' Bible studies, Sunday services, Thursday-night prayer meeting, youth get-togethers, cleaning the church's meeting place, etc. But some things we hope will change soon—like the construction on our apartment building (that has still has not been completed) and especially the number of the believers in Deruta.

Please continue to pray for the salvation of our friends and neighbors, for example: Piero, Alberto, Diego, Liliana, Manuela, Maria, Mario, Monaldo, Sandra, Simone, and Sonia. Please also pray for the contacts of our church people.

Thank you so much for your prayers!

Stephanie for Tom, Daniela, Nino, Angelo, & Gabriella
